

A Close Look at 40 Years

The importance of assessment, evaluation, and expectations leads us to ask the questions...

What happened in the past?

Where are we now?

What does the future hold?

*“Two men looked through prison bars.
One saw mud; one saw stars.”*

We should not be muddy-eyed pessimists, nor should we be starry-eyed optimists. But in the light of GOD’S WORD, we can be wide-eyed realists. So I would like for us to consider a particular passage that best fits this occasion:

Hebrews 11:24-27 (NKJV)

“By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter.

Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of GOD than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, esteeming the reproach of CHRIST greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he looked to the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured as seeing HIM WHO is invisible.”

I. A choice is made.

II. A path is followed.

III. A reward is sure.
